

FOI FOR HEALTH INFORMATION IN ALL AGENCIES

About this session:

Health services and agencies which deal with health information often face specific or unique issues under the Victorian FOI Act.

This session has been created due to unprecedented demand by those attending our usual FOI officer training for a session specifically for health information or health services. It is designed to help FOI decision makers from health services; FOI decision makers from agencies dealing with requests for health information

The session will cover in detail the following areas:

- application fees for requests for health information
- special forms of access for health information
- charges for access to health information
- application of s 33 generally in health related scenarios
- when an applicant can or cannot get their own health information
- special procedures for applicants seeking their own health information
- special review or complaint rights in decisions about health information.

Attendee numbers will be strictly limited to a maximum of 10.

Time:	9.00 am to 1.00 pm (includes refreshment break)
Dates:	Tuesday 27 April 2010 Wednesday 12 May 2010 Wednesday 9 June 2010

About the presenter:

Mick is pre-eminent in the fields of freedom of information, privacy and administrative law generally with over 20 years experience in acting for government clients in Australia.

He is the Executive Director and founder of FOI Solutions and is often sought after to speak in relation to those topics. He has developed an ability to communicate complex legal concepts in a practical and relevant way to both legal and non-legal officers of agencies. He has conducted training for many years over the period he has been in practice.

Professional Excellence in Administrative Law
